Residents should be aware that, beginning January 1, local waste haulers may no longer accept the banned electronics items for curbside collection, or, that waste haulers may assess a pick-up fee for the curbside collection of the banned electronics items.

The Illinois Electronic Products Recycling and Reuse Act allows that residents may bring electronics products to a registered electronics products collector or recycler during hours of operation and not be assessed a fee to have those electronics items recycled or refurbished. Local, no-cost options available to residents to recycle or reuse no-longer wanted electronics products include:

- Drop off accepted electronics items for free, during hours of operation only, at certain local retailers, recyclers, and non-profits in the Champaign-Urbana area that are registered with the State to accept electronics for recycling or reuse. A list of the local retailers, recyclers and non-profits in the Champaign-Urbana area that are registered to accept electronics for recycling or reuse is provided below.
- Drop off accepted electronics items for free at an upcoming Countywide Residential Electronics Collection. The next planned Collection is Saturday, May 5, 2012, from 8:00 a.m. to noon, at The News-Gazette Distribution Center located at 3202 N. Apollo Drive in Champaign.
