Case Number: 202500021761

Case Synopsis: On Wednesday (09/03/25) at approximately 1703 hrs, Champaign County Deputy Sheriffs were dispatched to a two-vehicle traffic crash in the Somer Township. During this incident, two adult females that were involved in the crash provided their contact information on scene and were later transported to a nearby hospital for further medical treatment. It was later determined that one of the females had provided deputies with a fictious name and date of birth. Following the incident, the female who had provided the fictious name and date of birth was identified and it was determined that she had possessed a warrant for her arrest. Both females were later located and interviewed, at which time they admitted to providing false information to deputies, due to the one female possessing a warrant for her apprehension.
