Case Number: 2024-00008869
Case Synopsis: During the morning of April 06, 2024, a Champaign County Sheriff's Deputy patrolling 200N observed a pickup truck towing another pickup truck using only a tow strap. The truck being towed did not have a license plate and the truck towing had an illegible license plate. The deputy initiated a traffic stop. During the investigation, he found the towing truck had expired and suspended registration, no insurance, and was being operated by a female who had an arrest warrant from Douglas County. The truck being towed was being operated by a male with a revoked driver's license with prior driving while license revoked convictions and pending charges. The female was arrested for her warrant and cited for the vehicle code violations. The male was cited for driving while license revoked. Both trucks were towed.
