

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT CHAMPAIGN COUNTY, ILLINOIS

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2012-6

Effective immediately, all body attachments issued in the wake of the failure of the respondent to appear on a claim of indirect civil contempt of court are subject to the following provisions:

- 1) All body attachments henceforth issued for failure to appear on a claim of indirect civil contempt of court shall have an effective duration of one year from the date of issuance;
- 2) All such body attachments shall bear an explicit and conspicuous recital that such writ is not to be executed beyond one year from the date of its issuance; and
- 3) All such body attachments issued on or before October 10, 2011 are hereby quashed.

This Administrative Order supplements Administrative Order 2012-5, implementing Public Act 97-848, by placing temporal limits on body attachments issued in indirect civil contempt of court proceedings irrespective of the nature or classification of the case in which the civil contempt claim arises.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
