Old Business

a. General updates

Grabow said she asked around for traveling Lincoln exhibits. She said she contacted one site, the National Constitution Center, that needed 1000 square feet. She said she found the Gilder - Lehrman Foundation that had ten thematic exhibits and charge $250 charge each for paneled exhibits. Anderson asked if we have had other exhibits. Wysocki explained past traveling exhibits. Grabow said that the emphasis on Lincoln has died down, we may get a break on costs. Wysocki asked about contacting the ALPLM.

1. Bookmarks at Museum of the Grand Prairie and 2. 2018 Illinois Bicentennial

K. Tucker said the MOGP did not have any of our bookmarks. Anderson asked about how long the MOGP had been without the bookmarks. K. Tucker said he did not ask.

K. Tucker said that the ALPLM staff said the State is not doing anything yet for the State Bicentennial.

b. Contact with the MOGP and Barb Garvey

K. Tucker said that B. Garvey was still interested in the LLC. He said the MOGP Educator would possibly be the contact.

c. Contact with the Circuit Clerk

Wysocki said she talked to Circuit Clerk Blakeman who was supportive of the LLC. She said there were several things going on at the courthouse which were impacting security and access to the public. She said LLC was in a holding pattern as far as providing information for the Circuit Clerk information table.

c. LLC future and current situation

H. Tucker asked if she should contact H. Tucker asked if we should contact the MOGP educator. The LLC members agreed.

H. Tucker asked who had the art files for the bookmarks. There was a discussion on this. Wysocki said she will contact MOGP.

Anderson said we could have ads on the bookmarks. Anderson said we could auction space on the bookmark at the annual local bar association meeting.
